Cipriano B. Romeral, Jr. or Teacher Ceppee, the author, was born in Bais City. He grew up in North Cotabato, Philippines. He finished his elementary grades and high school years in Alamada Central Elementary School and Alamada National High School, respectively, both in Alamada, North Cotabato. He earned his Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education (BSed) major in mathematics (Cum Laude) at the Notre Dame of Midsayap College in Midsayap, North Cotabato in 2006.

He has been connected to various Korean learning centers in Paranaque City and Las Pinas City where he teaches mathematics, chemistry, physics, biology, world history, TESOL, and ESL. He also conducts review sessions and lectures for Licensure Examination for teachers (LET) in review centers in Tacloban City and in his Online LET Review. His 12-year practice and exposure in these fields helped him develop and write books that are easy for the students to use and study.

He has been writing books since 2010. He had his first book entitled TECHNIQUES IN SOLVING ALGEBRAIC WORD PROBLEMS released in National Bookstores in 2010. He is releasing his two new books, LICENSURE EXAMINATION FOR TEACHERS FOR MATHEMATICS MAJOR and LICENSURE EXAMINATION FOR TEACHERS GENERAL EDUCATION.
