ABOUT THE MODULE

This module is designed specifically for aspiring elementary Music teachers and those presently teaching already who want to gain more ideas and consider more creative methods when handling their classes. Aligned with the current Department of Education (DepEd) Music curriculum, this module strives to cover a wide array of aspects needed to better equip the music teachers of today. An entire chapter is devoted as a reviewer for teachers who need to brush up on the required musical concepts. Much emphasis is given on experiential learning, creative activities or strategies, expected outcomes, and guides for assessment—tools which aim to enrich the classroom experience of both teacher and elementary student alike.
